Gweithio gyda'n gilydd – Working together

Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: Jubilee Celebrations at Llangynwyd Primary

After weeks of glorious sunshine and dry weather, the weather forecast for tomorrow is not great! As it stands currently there is a 50% chance of rain from 1pm. We are determined for the celebration to go ahead tomorrow.

If the weather is poor and we cannot hold our event outside then we have contingency plans in place. The children will enjoy the cakes and sandwiches they have made in their classroom. The parents who are attending will sit in the hall, where Tea, Coffee and Cakes will be on sale, and they can sit and watch the different classes perform. Each class will enter the hall one at a time, perform their item and then go back to class. The contingency plans are not perfect but the forecast for Thursday is not much better therefore it is our aim to complete the celebrations tomorrow as planned.

As we might be performing indoors, windows in the hall will be open for ventilation but I ask all in attendance to only come if you are well and are not symptomatic. Unfortunately, if it is held inside there is no room for any pushchairs or buggies.
